Jan Witold Baran : Election Law Primer for Corporations before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Election Law Primer for Corporations:

This book covers the fast-changing landscape of campaign finance and lobbying laws. The sixth edition offers an introduction and a summary of the basic principles. Numerous court decisions and new laws dramatically altered the ways in which groups, including corporations, could lawfully finance political activity outside of the political parties and the candidates. Independent advertisers and super political action committees (PACs) have new roles and new rules since the last edition (2006). Contribution limits have changed and aggregate limits on individuals have been eliminated. In addition, the Lobbying Disclosure Act, as well as new congressional ethics rules, have increased compliance burdens for persons engaged in lobbying and government relations.

About the Author Jan Witold Baran is a partner with Wiley Rein, LLP in Washington, D.C. Jan, named by Washingtonian magazine as a Top Campaigns Elections Lawyer and one of the Top 50 Lawyers in Washington, DC, advises clients on all aspects of political law including federal, state, and local campaign finance laws, government ethics requirements, and lobbying laws.
