Ariel Ezrachi : EU Competition Law: An Analytical Guide to the Leading Cases (Third Edition) before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised EU Competition Law: An Analytical Guide to the Leading Cases (Third Edition):

Designed as a working tool for study and practice, this is the enlarged and updated third edition of a highly practical guide to the leading cases of European competition law. The book focuses primarily on Article 101 TFEU (Ex Article 81 EC), Article 102 TFEU (Ex Article 82 EC), and the European Merger Regulation. In addition, it explores the public and private enforcement of competition law, the intersection between intellectual property rights and competition law, and the application of competition law to State action. Each chapter begins with an introduction that outlines the relevant laws, regulations, and guidelines for each of the topics, setting the analytical foundations for the case entries. Within this framework, cases are reviewed in summary form, accompanied by analysis and commentary.

...a very useful tool for any practitioner or any student at any level interested in EU competition law alike. The book has a very clear structure as each chapter deals with one of the core issues of EU competition law... Everything...is dealt with in a clear and concise manner, with just enough details and analysis to get a real insight whilst pinpointing the key issues of the EU competition law. This book by one of the leading authors in the field is a worthy successor to his previous editions and for anyone looking for an overview of the leading case law in EU competition law it's a must.
