From United Nations : European Agreement Concerning The International Carriage Of Dangerous Goods By Inland Waterways (Adn): 2015 before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised European Agreement Concerning The International Carriage Of Dangerous Goods By Inland Waterways (Adn): 2015:

The European Agreement concerning the International Carriage of Dangerous Goods by Inland Waterways (ADN) agreed in Geneva on 26 May 2000 under the auspices of the United Nations Economic Commission for Europe (UNECE) and the Central Commission for Navigation on the Rhine (CCNR) entered into force on 28 February 2008. The Agreement currently has seventeen Contracting Parties. The Regulations annexed to the ADN contain provisions concerning dangerous substances and articles, provisions concerning their carriage in packages and in bulk on board inland navigation vessels or tank vessels, as well as provisions concerning the construction and operation of such vessels. They also address requirements and procedures for inspections, the issue of certificates of approval, recognition of classification societies, monitoring, and training and examination of experts.
