From Hart Publishing : European Competition Law Annual 2008: Antitrust Settlements under EC Competition Law before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised European Competition Law Annual 2008: Antitrust Settlements under EC Competition Law:

Every year, top-level market regulators, academics, and legal practitioners attend the annual competition workshop organized by the Robert Schumann Centre for Advanced Studies at the European University Institute in Florence. The attendees are invited to discuss a particular set of critical issues in EU competition law and policy. Participants either prepare a written contribution on the issues of the workshop or they contribute to the oral debate afterwards. The meetings are closed to the public, but both the oral discussions and the written contributions are published shortly after the event in the European Competition Law Annual series. This is the 13th volume in the series, reproducing the debate which examined the settlements in cartel cases, including their links with leniency and with private enforcement mechanisms, and settlements pursuant to Article 9 of Regulation 1/2003.

The annual volumes and the papers have had substantial influence and are a wonderful source of the contrasting views on the actual legislation that followed. This perceptive, detailed, and properly edited tool for reforming policy was warmly praised by Judge Cook when he still served in the Court of First Instance. This is the thirteenth annual volume: two more workshops have been held. Long may it continue to guide both those framing policy and those advising on the legislation when enacted.
