before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised European Competition Law Annual 2011: Integrating Public and Private Enforcement of Competition Law - Implications for Courts and Agencies:

This volume contains the written contributions and oral proceedings of the "16th Annual EU Competition Law and Policy Workshop," held at the European University Institute in June 2011. This meeting of the Workshop examined the emerging and increasingly important use of private rights of action before national courts and in ADR fora, and the prospects for legislation and soft law initiatives at the level of the EU. Experiences in various jurisdictions were discussed, both within Europe, as well as in the US and Canada. The objective of the Workshop was to explore how the institutions of public and private enforcement might function harmoniously, in an 'integrated' manner to promote the public interest, while ensuring that individual rights created in this field by the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union are vindicated. (Series: European Competition Law Annual)

Each of the four parts raises many important issues of policy...This annual series of workshops has been very influential and we are fortunate that the series started by Professors Ehlermann and Amato eighteen years ago still continues...
