From Beck/Hart : European State Aid Law: A Commentary before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised European State Aid Law: A Commentary:

The regulation of State aid belongs to the core areas of European Union law. Without the general prohibition of State subsidies to undertakings, competitiveness would be distorted and the benefits of the internal market would be put in jeopardy. This commentary deals systematically and article-by-article with the basic principles, proceedings, and implementation of State aid law as laid down in Articles 107 to 109 TFEU, as well as the general block exemptions regulation (Regulation No. 800/2008) and the Council Regulation (EC) No. 659/1999 laying down detailed rules for the application of Article 93 TEC. Furthermore, the book deals in detail with the rules regulating State aid in specific sectors, such as: telecommunication, postal services, broadcast/television, energy/coal, banking, railroads, road transport, shipping, air traffic/airports, automotive industry, shipbuilding, steel, housing, agriculture, fishery, culture/tourism/sport, and health. [Subject: European Law, Competition Law]

The Commentary is a must-have tool on the table of each state aid practitioner. -- Katri Paas-Mohando, PhD, Competition law lecturer; Senior Associate, University of Tartu; TGS VARUL * European Competition Law *About the Author Franz Jurgen Sacker is Professor of Civil Law at the Free University of Berlin and director of the Institute for German and European Business, Competition and Regulatory Law, Berlin.
